VOX 3 is a collective of artists who educate both themselves and their audiences through varied performances of vocal music. Formed in 2007, the group quickly instituted one of Chicago's only regular art song recital series. Its members are graduates of some of the country's finest conservatory programs, and have appeared with major opera companies and orchestras throughout the world. Pairing standard and obscure repertoire—whether Renaissance motet, Baroque opera, Romantic lieder, or contemporary art song—VOX 3 concerts and recitals feature thoughtful programming and provide intimate interaction between singer, accompanist, and audience. Featured on WLWU, WBEZ, and WFMT radio, WOCH television, and recommended by critics and publications throughout Chicago, VOX 3 concerts are entertaining and educational. Beyond musical performance, VOX 3 builds connections between branches of art, culture, and history, with its educational efforts. Past programs have featured female composers, traced German history, celebrated Filipino, Greek, or Latin American culture, highlighted the drama of works by Shakespeare and Strindberg, and delved into the folklore of diverse peoples. The ensemble's two recordings, New Song and Spirit Within, are available on iTunes and CDBaby.com. To learn more, visit our website at www.vox3.org.
