Plorate filii Israel | Giacomo Carissimi

Giacomo Carissimi, one of the first composers of the oratorio, is probably best known for his oratorio Jepthe. Composed for six voices and continuo, Jepthe depicts the biblical story of Jepthah, a man selected by the elders of Gilead to defeat the Ammonites. Jepthah swears an oath to God that he would sacrifice the first person to emerge from his house were he to overthrow his opponent. Upon his return from defeating Ammon, Jepthah’s daughter runs to greet her father, ensuring her death. In Plorate filii Israel, his daughter pleads Jepthah for two months to “go down on the mountain and mourn her virginity.”

Locus iste | Anton Bruckner

Anton Bruckner was an Austrian composer of the nineteenth century and was largely known for his sacred music. Deeply religious, a debate would begin as to whether Bruckner subscribed to the Roman Catholic Cecilian Movement. This society held that liturgical music must follow three ideals: sixteenth-century polyphony represents the character of sacred music, Gregorian chant should create the foundation of Catholic music, and the concert style of liturgical performances was unbefitting. His motets harken to that Palestrinian polyphony and chanted character; however, his larger sacred works far exceed the parameters of the Cecilians. The piece performed this evening presents a rich combination of traditional polyphony and Romantic harmonies.

El Vito | arr. Mack Wilberg

El Vito is a traditional 16th century folk song from the Andalusia region of Spain but is recognized as having heavy Gypsy, Moorish and Jewish influences common of many folk songs of Andalusia. This piece finds much of its recognition through its association of a lively folk dance of the same name. Mack Wilberg captures the liveliness and passion of the dance in this arrangement.

Ubi caritas | René Clausen

René Clausen, composer and conductor of the Concordia Choir, is an American musician of the Neo-Romantic style. Clausen, the recipient of three Grammy Awards, provides a unique combination of traditional choral progressions with rich tonal clusters. Clausen once described his work, stating, “The compositional style of the work can be rather easily classified as neo-Romantic, with straightforward rhythms, harmonic language that does not significantly move beyond traditional tension/resolution, and vocal and instrumental writing that is idiomatic, yet takes full advantage of instrumental and vocal capabilities.”

Daemon Irrepit Callidus | György Orbán

György Orbán, born in Transylvania, Romania, is most notably recognized rather as a Hungarian composer, having written most of his compositions in Hungary. Furthermore, Orbán’s pieces are permeated with a style characteristic of traditional Hungarian folk music. Orbán’s satirical and often grotesque style artfully portrays the devil, the repeated minor second movement in all voices creating an ominous atmosphere.

Victimae Paschali Laudes | arr. Michael Engelhardt

Michael Engelhardt describes Victimae Paschali Laudes as Daft Punk and Pentatonix collaborating on a remix of an ancient Gregorian chant. There is clearly contrapuntal skill harnessed within a pop sensibility in a clear conceptualization of form. There is an unwavering manner in which the ancient text is delivered and set in the Daft Punk style where sometimes the emotional content is subdued for the sake of the beat.

Jai Ho | A. R. Rahman

A. R. Rahman is an Indian composer, singer-songwriter, music producer, musician and philanthropist. Rahman's works are noted for integrating Eastern classical music with electronic music, world music and traditional orchestral arrangements. His awards include two Academy Awards, two Grammy Awards, a BAFTA Award, a Golden Globe, four National Film Awards, fifteen Filmfare Awards and thirteen Filmfare Awards South. Rahman's body of work for film and stage has given him the nickname of "the Mozart of Madras", and Tamil commentators and fans call him Isai Puyal (the Musical Storm).

Jai Ho was written for the 2008 Oscar winning film Slumdog Millionaire, which won 8 Academy Awards including Best Original Score and Best Original Song for Jai Ho. While this is a British movie, director Tony Boyle wanted to acknowledge Indian tradition. He asked A. R. Rahman to write a song in the style of his music for the Indian cinema to be choreographed and performed during the ending credits. The resulting piece is a victory dance capturing the essence of the movie's story. Ethan Sperry's exciting arrangement of the 2008 Oscar-winning song from Slumdog Millionaire has attracted a lot of attention on the festival circuit, and for good reason! The song's global rhythms and combined Hindi and English text give it multicultural appeal above and beyond its familiarity from the movie score. The Slumdog Millionaire soundtrack composed by A. R. Rahman, planned the score for over two months and completed it in only two weeks. Rahman's music not only draws on Indian classical music but also infuses R&B and hip-hop from America, and house music coming from Europe.

Plorate filii Israel

Plorate filii Israel,

plorate omnes virgines,

et filiam Jephte unigenitam in carmine doloris lamentamini.

Weep, you children of Israel,

weep, all you virgins,

and for Jephthah's only daughter,

lament with songs of anguish.

Locus iste a Deo factus est

Locus iste a Deo factus est,

Inaestimabile sacramentum,

irreprehensibilis est.

This place was made by God;

a priceless holy place,

it is without fault.

El Vito

¡Con el vito vito vito!

¡Con el vito vito va!

With the vito [dance], vito, vito,

With the vito, vito, it goes!

No me mires tu chiquilla

Que ne voy a esmorona

Do not look at me, little sweetheart,

Or I will fall in love.

No me mires tu chiiquilla

Que me voy a desmaya.

Do not look at me, little sweetheart,

Or I will faint.

Anda vete que no quiero

Pasar pri ti mas fatigas;

Si te digp que te vayas

Leave me, for I do not want to pass through more pain.

!Que mas quieres que te diga!

What more do you want me to say!

Victimae Paschali Laudes

Let Christians offer sacrificial praises to the Passover victim.
The lamb has redeemed the sheep: The Innocent Christ has reconciled the sinners to the Father.
Death and life contended in a spectacular battle: the Prince of life, who died, reigns alive.
Tell us, Mary, what did you see on your way?

Resurgentis, tu nobis, victor
Rising, O thou, Victor, King,
Rex, miserere.
Have mercy on us.

Jai Ho

Come, come my Life, under the canopy.
Come under the blue brocade sky!

Iota by Iota, I have lost my life. I faith I’ve passed the night dancing on coals; I blew away the sleep that was in my eyes; I counted the stars ‘til my finger burned.

Dance! Dance!
Now with me, you dance for today, for our day of movements.
No matter what problems may be: Cheers! Dance! Dance!

Victimae paschali laudes
immolent Christiani.

Agnus redemit oves:
The lamb has redeemed the sheep:
Christus innocens Patire conciliavit peccatores.
The Innocent Christ has reconciled the sinners to the Father.
Mors et vita duello
Death and life contended
confluxere mirando: in a spectacular battle:
dux vitae mortuus, the Prince of life, who died,
regnat vivus.
reigns alive.

Dic nobis Maria,
Tell us, Mary, what did quid vidisti in via?
you see on your way?

Resurgentis,
Rising,
tu nobis, victor
O thou, Victor, King,
Rex, miserere.
Have mercy on us.

Jai Ho

Aaja aaja jind shamiyaane ke tale
Come, come my Life, under the canopy.
Aaja zari wale neele aasmaane ke tale
Come under the blue brocade sky!

Ratti ratti sachchi maine jaan gawayi hai
Iota by Iota, I have lost my life. I faith
Nach nach koylon pe raat bitaayi hai
I’ve passed the night dancing on coals;
Aukhiyon ki neend maine phoonko se udaa di
I blew away the sleep that was in my eyes;
Gin gin’ taarey maine ungali jalayi hai
I counted the stars ‘til my finger burned.

Baila! Baila!
Dance! Dance!
Ahora conmego, tu baila para hoy
Now with me, you dance for today,
Por nuestro dia de movidas,
for our day of movements.
Los problemas los que sean
No matter what problems may be:
Salud! Baila! Baila!
Cheers! Dance! Dance!
Chakh le, haan chakh le, yeh raat shehed hai
Chakh le, haan chakh le, dil hai, dil aakhri hadd hai, kaala kaala kaajal tera Koi kaala jaadu hai na?

Taste it, taste it. The night is honey!
Taste it, and keep it; it’s a heart at its final limit.
You’re a dark black, coal-black magic, aren’t you?
